MILITARY HEADS MEET

Representative Dent Tells Them Their Graduates Will Prove of Great Benefit in Time of War.

"We are today, perhaps, the most hated nation in the world," said Col. John Temple Graves, of the New York American, who delivered the principal adderess before delegates from forty of the leading military schools and colleges of the country in the third annual meet-ing of the Association of Military Schools and Colleges of the United States at the and Colleges of the United States at the New Ebbitt Hotel last night. Mr. Graves spoke on the subject, "Ideal Americans and Americans in War and in Peace." He said the cold-blooded neutrality preserved by the United States toward the powers of the triple alliance had reacted on the warm friendship expected, and made them hate us. The manufacture of munitions of war and the shipment of war supplies also had played an imporwar supplies also had played an impor-tant part in arousing this feeling. Electrical Prosperity Week Folk May Establish Communication Today.

CELEBRATION A SUCCESS

Greeting from Wilson Stimulater Activity-Flood Lighting of Buildings Attracts.

Wireless telephonic communication between New York and Washington probably will be established today or omorrow, and with the completion of the arrangements District men concerned with the celebration of Electrical Prospertity Week will discuss with a similar committee in New York the progress of the celebration. It has been intended for several days to make the wireless talk one of the features of the program for the celebration here and arrangements with the Arlington radio plant and the Chesapeake and Potomac Tele-phone Company had been completed,

York.
John C. McLaughlin, chairman of ton electrical dealers, yesterday talk-ed by telephone with officials of the Society for Electrical Development, in New York, who are fostering the movement. He was told by H. W. Alexander, one of the officials, that the wireless message was held up be-cause of failure of certain equipment from Washington to reach New York. Miss Lois Edmonds, who has been visiting with friends in Portsmouth, Va., has returned to her home in The arrangements may be completed

Mr. McLaughlin was told by Mr. Alexander of the success of the na-tion-wide celebration. The observance of electrical prosperity was un-dertaken with especial pains in Phila-delphia, where the success was re-markable, Mr. McLaughlin was told.
